

INVESTING IN THE MINE AND QUARRIES SECTOR IN BURKINA FASO

VIEW OF THE GOVERNMENT :

By 2026, the mine and quarries sector should be competitive and be an important lever of sustainable social and economic development in Burkina Faso

ASSETS OF THE SECTOR

- Contribution to the GDP: 14.29% in 2020
- Gold production in 2020: 62.76 T
- Zinc production in 2019: 152.540 T
- General production of quarry substances in 2020: 1,221,223.94 m<sup>3</sup>
- Number of exploiting mines in 2020: 15
- Generated direct and indirect jobs in the mine sector in 2020: 51,631
- Geological diversity and subsoil rich in metals (manganese, lead, silver, copper, cobalt, bauxite, iron, etc.)
- Burkina Faso's subsoil contains 20% of West Africa's birimine
- Underground mineral substances: limestone, dolomite, phosphate, marble, talc, clay, silica, antimony, graphite etc.

INVESTMENT CLIMATE OF THE SECTOR

- Law No. 036-2015/CNT of June 26, 2015 on mining code in Burkina Faso
- Law No. 028-2017/AN of May 18, 2017 on the organization of the marketing of gold and other precious substances in Burkina Faso
- Law No.051-2017/AN of November 23, 2017, fixing the regime of explosive substances for civil use in Burkina Faso
- Decree No. 2021-1142/PRES/PM/MINEFID/MEMC/MICA of November 11, 2021 establishing the conditions of local supply in the mining sector
- Decree No. 2018-0970/PRES/PM/MINEFID of October 24, 2018, on the conditions for pouring, weighing, and packaging of gold and precious substances
- Decree No. 2017-1016/PRES/MICA/MINEFID of October 26, 2017 on the organization of gold marketing and other precious substances in Burkina Faso

INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITIES

- Exploration and mining
- Development of related services
- Establishment of gold refining units
- Local supply of goods and services to mining companies
- Implementing development mineral processing units

